If you wish to make a complaint, our full complaints procedure is set out on the next page. It covers complaints from residents, and in relation to property matters, from prospective residents. It applies to complaints about employers, workers, contractors and agents of LifeCare Residences and its UK subsidiaries.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We accept your right to complain and to register comments and concerns about our services and want to make it easy for you to do so. We welcome complaints, seeing them as opportunities to learn, adapt, improve and provide better services.

You may seek redress in relation to a complaint under the following procedure.

You have the right to be accompanied at any meeting about your complaint by a support person/advocate.

We aim to ensure that complaints are dealt with properly and in a timely way and that all complaints or comments by residents and their relatives, carers and advocates are taken seriously.

We support the principle that most complaints if dealt with early, openly and honestly can be resolved at a local level between the complainant and ourselves and often through a discussion process.

We will apologise if we did not get things right, in respect of our service or communication with you and we will work with you to create a better experience with us wherever possible.

Complaints and Concerns

We encourage you to register any concerns or complaints you may have relating to our services, staff, or the provision of care. You can discuss the matter informally with the General Manager, Head of Care or any other member of the senior management team who will try in the first instance to put things right.

If you prefer to put your complaint in writing or in an email, we will work with you to understand how you would like the issues resolved and communicated back to you.

You may nominate an intermediary to handle your complaint on your behalf at any time during the procedure. We will co-operate in the same way with any such intermediary.

We understand that it can be stressful to raise your complaints for fears of recrimination and we will do our best to keep you informed about the process and what we are doing to find a remedy to your concern. We assure you that we will not treat you any differently if you make a complaint.

Some complaints are able to be resolved immediately and some may take a little longer to be resolved but we will do our best to understand the outcomes you are looking for and resolve the concerns you or your family have.

We will try and provide answers to your complaint as soon as possible, but in some cases an investigation may be required. We will respond to you within 28 days. If we need more time, we will agree a new deadline with you.

We will offer a local resolution meeting, to feedback to you what we have found and to work with you to offer both assurance and plan a way forward.

Our intention is to respond to complaints and concerns in a transparent way that provides you with reassurance that your experience is important to us and we will work in partnership with you to put things right.

If you feel your complaint has not been satisfactorily resolve, please let us know and we will ask our Head of Legal to review the matter. You do not need to submit further information at this stage, but you may do so if you wish. Our Head of Legal will provide you with our final decision in writing.

If you remain unhappy with our final decision, following this review, or we fail to deliver it within the relevant deadline, you may refer your complaint to the relevant Ombudsman.

Getting Help If Your Complaint Is About the Provision of Care

If you do not feel satisfied with our final decision on a complaint relating to domiciliary or nursing care, or we fail to provide this within the relevant deadline, you may refer the matter to the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman (LGO)

The LGO deals with all complaints related to adult social care, regardless of how the care service is funded. In most cases, they will only consider a complaint once the care provider has been given reasonable opportunity to deal with the situation. It is a free service. Their job is to investigate complaints in a fair, unbiased and independent way. They are independent of politicians, local authorities, government department, advocacy and campaigning groups, the care industry, and the Care Quality Commission (CQC). They are not a regulator and do not inspect care providers.

The link below is to the LGO's webpage on "Adult social care" and has a short film which explains their role and how their service will benefit both residents and care providers. A free copy of the film and manuscript is available to download from the same location.

www.lgo.org.uk/adult-social-care/

We will cooperate fully with the LGO during any investigation and comply with their resulting final decision, which will be binding on us.

The CQC does not investigate individual complaints but will take them into account in developing their inspection programme. The LGO can share information with the CQC but only when deemed appropriate. The CQC will redirect individual complaints to the LGO, and the LGO will inform CQC about outcomes that point to regulatory failures.

Getting Help If Your Complaint Is About Residential Leasehold Management or Our Resale Agency Activities

If you do not feel satisfied with our final decision on a complaint relating to property matters, or we fail to provide this within the relevant deadline, you may refer the matter to the Property Ombudsman Service, of which LifeCare Residences are members (membership number D102292).

The best way to complain to the Property Ombudsman is by completing a complaint form online (using the link below) or downloading the form and completing it. Alternatively, you can obtain a hard copy from the General Manager and send it to The Property Ombudsman direct.

www.tpos.co.uk/consumers/how-to-make-a-complaint

The complaint form gives the Property Ombudsman permission to contact us.

If you have a query or want to check something before making a complaint to the Property Ombudsman, you can phone them. You can also complain by letter or phone, but the Property Ombudsman must have your signed permission to contact us before they can consider the complaint further.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

The Property Ombudsman considers how to respond based on the circumstances of each individual complaint. They will usually contact both parties to explore how the complaint can be resolved locally.

We will co-operate fully with the Property Ombudsman Service during any investigation and comply with the resulting final decision, which will be binding on us.
